

North Hampton Heritage Commission
Minutes –December 7, 2000

The meeting was opened by Jenifer Landman, Chair, at 10 am. Also present were: Jane Meneghin, Priscilla Leavitt, Jane Palmer, Barbara Hobby, Janice Mellian and Pamela Schwotzer. There was no agenda for the meeting.

Minutes for November Nov. 24 were read and accepted.

An anonymous $500 donation! We can now afford Spire Printing as recommended by Kate. All costs will be covered with a balance remaining in the Historical Society account of $125. It was suggested this might be a donation to Richard and Susannah for their book, etc., and in thanks for all their donated services.

Pam mentioned Community Notes, the Friends of the Library newsletter which will be produced together with the school for the next (February-April) issue. It would be a good idea for the Historical Society to also be a part of this collaboration.

Roland Neves sent via Jenifer information on NH Land and Heritage Investment Program funding, with the recommendation we get our name in now for the proposed historical museum in the old library. We felt we are not ready at this time with any specifics.

Jenifer will write a note to North Hampton Forever mentioning that, while we are interested in their goals, we wish them to seek our approval before using the North Hampton Heritage Commission name in any way.

A letter from Pat Myers indicating disappointment with the photo chosen for the fish houses. She will, however, respect the final choice.

Issue of “t” in “Batchelder”/”Bachelder, etc. We will use “t” in all but 1, with a note explaining same family, different spellings.

By 12/15 we will have a CD and 1 print copy to submit and will therefore be in compliance with grant requirements. By 12/31 we must submit everything. Jenifer has the financial report ready to go. Donations were $6700, expenses $6574.44, not including donated services totaling $3862.

The brochure cover price of $2 will not cover printing costs in future. We will need donations, possibly from Citizens’ Bank, who were not able to donate this round.

The meeting adjourned at 11:30.

Respectfully submitted,
Pam Schwotzer
